2019 MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

SECTION 5: PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

1. The object of the IBD is the advancement of education, especially in the sciences of Brewing, Fermentation and Distillation. Eligible applicants are, "Persons who by the virtue of their interest in the scientific and technical aspects of the Brewing, Fermentation, Distillation and related Industries are, in the opinion of the Council, able to further the objects of the IBD and are nominated, in a form prescribed by Council, by one subscribing Member".
2. Applicants from the UK can select from: Great Northern, Midland, Southern, Scottish, or Irish Sections. ii) Non UK applicants can select the Africa Section, Asia-Pacific Section or International Section (primarily for those from Countries with insufficient numbers for a local Section).
3. You must notify us of any previous application and especially any Class of Membership obtained.
4. Student Members must complete the 'Validation from Educational Establishment' section above.
5. A reduced rate is offered and only applies to those who register for the Fundamentals or General Certificate examinations (Certificate Membership). The reduced rate is available for the first three years as a Certificate Member after which time the subscription level reverts to the full Standard Member rate. Existing members are not eligible for the introductory offer.
6. MBAA members holding professional membership are entitled to the discounted rate of £119.
7. If your employer is paying your fee and requires an invoice, a Purchase Order should be enclosed with your application.
8. Membership at the discounted 'Student Rate' is granted for the period of study indicated in the application. However, if studies are extended, a Student may apply for re-registration. Failure to re-register or transfer to Ordinary Membership on completion of the period will result in the removal of his/her name from the Register of Members without further notification. A candidate for discounted 'Student Rate' Membership is required to produce evidence satisfactory to the Council: i) that he/she is undergoing full-time study. ii) that he/she is recommended for registration as a Member by the appropriate tutor, teacher in any University or Institution. iii) a Student who ceases study before the agreed period is complete must advise the IBD or transfer to full membership.
9. We may occasionally contact you by Email with IBD/Section news. If you wish to be contacted this way, please indicate here:
10. Applicants MUST pay the necessary subscription fees before any application can be put to Council. The subscription year runs from the date the member joins and continues for a year.
11. Please tick here to opt-in to appearing in the online members list (viewable by members only) or any printed directory members list:
12. Please contact us immediately if your personal details change or if you have any queries.
